RE: FOIA Pre-Authorization Request - 2011 PAC 14265

Dear Mr. Finlon:

We have received and reviewed the written notice from the Village of Lake Zurich (Village) of its intention to deny certain information as exempt from disclosure under section 7(1)(c) of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5 ILCS 140/7(1)(c) (West 2009 Supp.), as amended by Public Act 96-1378, effective July 29, 2010). The Village is seeking to redact information regarding the juvenile victim and dates of birth from the requested documents.

██████████ submitted a FOIA request for Lake Zurich Police Department Criminal Offense Report Number 2011-02882 on May 9, 2011. In its written notice, the Village asserts that dates of birth are exempt from disclosure under section 7(1)(c) of FOIA.

Section 7(1)(c) of FOIA exempts from inspection and copying "[p]ersonal information contained within public records, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, unless the disclosure is consented to in writing by the individual subjects of the information." The exemption defines "unwarranted invasion of personal privacy" as "the disclosure of information that is highly personal or objectionable to a reasonable person and in which the subject's right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining the information." 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(c) (West 2009 Supp.), as amended by Public Act 96-1378, effective July 29, 2010.

DETERMINATION

The Village's use of the exemption in section 7(1)(c) for the redaction of information regarding the juvenile victim is approved. We have concluded that the Village has met its initial burden of demonstrating that the disclosure of information regarding the juvenile victim would be highly objectionable to the reasonable person. Under these circumstances, the right to privacy outweighs any public interest in the information that the Village intends to withhold.

The Village's use of the exemption in section 7(1)(c) for the dates of birth is approved. We have determined that the Village has met its initial burden to demonstrate that the disclosure of dates of birth would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. This type of information is highly personal by its very nature and the subject's right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in disclosing this information. See, e.g., Oliva v. United States, 756 F. Supp. 105, 107 (E.D.N.Y. 1991) (holding that, under Exemption 6 of the Federal Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. §552(b)(6)), "dates of birth[ ] are a private matter, particularly when coupled with * * * other information" and "would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy"); Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts v. Attorney General of Texas, ___ S.W.3d ___, 54 Tex. Sup. Ct. J. 245 (2010) (state employees have a "nontrivial privacy interest" in their dates of birth under the Texas Public Information Act (see Tex. Gov't Code §§552.101, 552.102), which substantially outweighs the negligible public interest in disclosure).

Accordingly, the Village may issue a partial denial letter and release the reports with the information regarding the juvenile victim and dates of birth redacted, if it has not already done so.

The Village also indicates that it intends to redact additional information from the records pursuant to sections 7(1)(a), 7(1)(b) and 7(1)(d)(iv) (5 ILCS 140/7(1)(a), (b), (d)(iv) (West 2009 Supp.), as amended by Public Act 96-1378, effective July 29, 2010) of FOIA. Because advance approval by the Public Access Counselor is not required for the assertion of exemptions other than sections 7(1)(c) and 7(1)(f) (5 ILCS 140/7(1)(f) (West 2009 Supp.), as amended by Public Act 96-1378, effective July 29, 2010), we make no determination at this time regarding the applicability of any other exemptions.
