RE: FOIA Pre-Authorization Request – 2010 PAC 10805

Dear Ms. Kavanaugh:

We have received and reviewed the written notice from the Schaumburg Police Department of its intention to deny disclosure of certain information under section 7(1)(c) of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5 ILCS 140/7(1)(c) (West 2009 Supp.), as amended by Public Act 96-1378, effective July 29, 2010). On November 16, 2010, [REDACTED] submitted a FOIA request to the Department seeking police incident report #10-28493. The Department seeks to redact dates of birth and a portion of the narrative pursuant to section 7(1)(c) of FOIA.

Section 7(1)(c) of FOIA exempts from inspection and copying "[p]ersonal information contained within public records, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, unless the disclosure is consented to in writing by the individual suspects of the information." The exemption defines "unwarranted invasion of personal privacy" as the "disclosure of information that is highly personal or objectionable to a reasonable person and in which the subject's right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining the information." 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(c) (West 2009 Supp.), as amended by Public Act 96-1378, effective July 29, 2010.

DETERMINATION

The Department's use of the exemption in section 7(1)(c) to withhold a portion of the narrative is approved. We have reviewed an un-redacted copy of the police report and concluded that disclosure of this information would constitute an unwarranted invasion of a subject's personal privacy. This type of information is highly personal by its very nature and the subject's right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in disclosing this information. Accordingly, we conclude that the Department has sustained its initial burden of demonstrating that the portion of the narrative is exempt from disclosure under section 7(1)(c).

The Department also indicates that it intends to redact additional information from the records pursuant to section 7(1)(b) and section 7(1)(d)(iv) (5 ILCS 140/7(1)(b), (d)(iv) (West 2009 Supp.), as amended by Public Act 96-1378, effective July 29, 2010). Because advance approval by the Public Access Counselor is not required for the assertion of exemptions other than sections 7(1)(c) and 7(1)(f) (5 ILCS 140/7(1)(f) (West 2009 Supp.), as amended by Public Act 96-1378, effective July 29, 2010), we make no determination at this time regarding the applicability of any other exemptions.

The Department's use of the exemption in section 7(1)(c) to redact dates of birth is also approved. We have determined that the Department has met its initial burden of demonstrating that the disclosure of dates of birth would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. This type of information is highly personal by its very nature and the subject's right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in disclosing this information. See, e.g., Oliva v. United States, 756 F. Supp. 105, 107 (E.D.N.Y. 1991) (holding that, under Exemption 6 of the Federal Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. §552(b)(6)), "dates of birth[ ] are a private matter, particularly when coupled with * * * other information" and "would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy"); Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts v. Attorney General of Texas, ___ S.W.3d ___, 54 Tex. Sup. Ct. J. 245 (2010) (state employees have a "nontrivial privacy interest" in their dates of birth under the Texas Public Information Act (see Tex. Gov't Code § 552.101, 552.102), which substantially outweighs the negligible public interest in disclosure).

Accordingly, the Department may release the records to Ms. Teele with redactions in accordance with this letter, if it has not already done so.

Very truly yours,
