RE: FOIA Preauthorization Request- 2011 PAC 14428

Dear Mr. Fronczak:

We have received and reviewed the written notice from the Office of the President of the Board of Commissioners of Cook County of its intention to deny certain information requested by [REDACTED] as exempt from disclosure under section 7(1)(c) of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(c) (West 2009 Supp.), as amended by Public Act 96-1378, effective July 29, 2010. [REDACTED] requested autopsy photographs of two individuals. As discussed below, after considering the balancing test required under the section 7(1)(c) exemption, we conclude that the County has met its initial burden of demonstrating that these autopsy photographs are exempt from disclosure.

DETERMINATION

A public body seeking to rely on the exemption set forth in section 7(1)(c) of FOIA must show: 1) that the requested information is highly personal or that disclosure would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person; and 2) that the subject's right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining the information. The Attorney General has recognized that surviving family members "have a cognizable personal privacy interest in autopsy records relating to the death of a close relative, which interest must be considered" in determining whether such records are exempt from disclosure under section 7(1)(c). Ill. Att'y Gen. Pub. Acc. Op. No. 10-003, issued October 22, 2010, at 6. Under section 7(1)(c), the privacy interests of surviving family members must be balanced against the legitimate public interest in obtaining the information.

After carefully reviewing the materials submitted by the County, we have determined that the privacy interests of surviving family members justify withholding the autopsy photographs. By their nature, post-mortem photographs depicting a human being are "gruesome and graphic" and their disclosure would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person. See Ill. Att'y Gen. Pub. Acc. Op. No. 10-003 at 7-10. With respect to these photographs, the privacy interests of the surviving family members outweigh the public interest in obtaining the information. We therefore conclude that the County has met its burden of showing by clear and convincing evidence that this information is exempt, and the request to assert the exemption under section 7(1)(c) with respect to the autopsy photographs is accordingly approved.
