RE: FOIA Pre-Authorization Request - 2011 PAC 14808

Dear Chief Kazy-Garey:

We have received and reviewed the written notice from the Harvard Police Department of its intention to deny disclosure of certain information under section 7(1)(c) of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5 ILCS 140/7(1)(c) (West 2009 Supp.), as amended by Public Act 96-1378, effective July 29, 2010). The Department is seeking to redact dates of birth from the requested documents.

On June 3, 2011, [REDACTED] submitted a FOIA request for Department Incident Report Number HAPD-11-002612. In its written notice, the Department asserts that dates of birth are exempt from disclosure under section 7(1)(c) of FOIA.

Section 7(1)(c) of FOIA exempts from inspection and copying "[p]ersonal information contained within public records, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, unless the disclosure is consented to in writing by the individual subjects of the information." The exemption defines "unwarranted invasion of personal privacy" as "the disclosure of information that is highly personal or objectionable to a reasonable person and in which the subject's right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining the information." 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(c) (West 2009 Supp.), as amended by Public Act 96-1378, effective July 29, 2010.

DETERMINATION

The Department's use of the exemption in section 7(1)(c) for the dates of birth is approved. We have determined that the Department has met its initial burden of demonstrating that the disclosure of dates of birth would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. This type of information is highly personal by its very nature and the subject's right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in disclosing this information. See, e.g., Oliva v. United States, 756 F. Supp. 105, 107 (E.D.N.Y. 1991) (holding that, under Exemption 6 of the Federal Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. §552(b)(6)), "dates of birth[] are a private matter, particularly when coupled with * * * other information" and "would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy"); Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts v. Attorney General of Texas, ___ S.W.3d ___, 54 Tex. Sup. Ct. J. 245 (2010) (state employees have a "nontrivial privacy interest" in their dates of birth under the Texas Public Information Act (see Tex. Gov't Code §§552.101, 552.102), which substantially outweighs the negligible public interest in disclosure).

Accordingly, the Department may issue a partial denial letter and release the reports with the dates of birth redacted, if it has not already done so.

In addition, the Department may redact personal license plate information without preauthorization because it is "private information." "Private information" is defined in section 2(c-5) of FOIA as "unique identifiers, including  personal license plates[.]" 5 ILCS 140/2(c-5) (West 2009 Supp.). "Private information" is exempt from disclosure pursuant to section 7(1)(b). 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(b) (West 2009 Supp.), as amended by Public Act 96-1378, effective July 29, 2010.

If you have any questions about FOIA, please contact us at (877) 299-3642. This correspondence shall serve to close this matter.

Very truly yours,
