RE: Pre-Authorization Request – 2010 PAC 7985
Laurie E. Droit of Madison Mutual Insurance Company

Dear Ms. Briggs:

We have received and reviewed the written notice from the Town of Normal (Town) of its intent to deny disclosure of certain information in a police report as exempt from disclosure under Section 7(1)(c) of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(c). This letter is to advise you that your request is approved.

Section 7(1)(c) of FOIA exempts from inspection and copying “[p]ersonal information contained within public records, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, unless disclosure is consented to in writing by the individual subjects of the information.” 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(c). The exemption defines “[u]nwarranted invasion of personal privacy” as “the disclosure of information that is highly personal or objectionable to a reasonable person and in which the subject’s right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining the information.” Id.

Determinations

The Town’s use of the exemption in Section 7(1)(c) with regard to dates of birth is approved. We have determined that the disclosure of this information would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person. The subjects’ right to privacy in these personal details outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining this information. Therefore, the disclosure of this information would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(c).

The Town’s use of the exemption in Section 7(1)(c) with regard to specific injury information also is approved. We have determined that the disclosure of specific injury information would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person. The subjects’ right to privacy in these personal details outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining this information. Therefore, the disclosure of this information would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(c).

In accordance with this letter, the Town may release the requested records. If you have any questions, please call our office at 1-877-299-FOIA (3642). This letter shall serve to close this matter.

Sincerely,

Cara Smith
