RE: Pre-Authorization Request – 2011 PAC 12914

Dear Mr. Recupito:

We have received and reviewed the written notice from the Round Lake Police Department of its intention to deny disclosure of certain information pursuant to Section 7(1)(c) of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 ILCS 140/1 et seq., as amended.

██████████ submitted a FOIA request dated March 10, 2011 seeking a copy of report number 2011-0432. In its written notice, the Department asserted that dates of birth and two sentences in the narrative section of the report that contain information as to a medical condition are exempt from disclosure under Section 7(1)(c) (5 ILCS 140/7(1)(c)).

Determinations

Section 7(1)(c) of FOIA exempts from inspection and copying “[p]ersonal information contained within public records, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, unless the disclosure is consented to in writing by the individual subjects of the information.” Id. The exemption defines “[u]nwarranted invasion of personal privacy” as “the disclosure of information that is highly personal or objectionable to a reasonable person and in which the subject’s right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining the information.” Id.

The Department’s use of the exemption in Section 7(1)(c) with regard to dates of birth and the two sentences in the narrative is approved. We have determined that the disclosure of this information would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy under Section 7(1)(c). This information is highly personal, and the subject’s right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining this information.

Accordingly, the Department may issue a partial denial letter directly to the requester and release the report with the appropriate information redacted. Sincerely,

Sarah Kaplan by E.K.
