RE: FOIA Pre-Authorization Request - 2011 PAC 13924

Dear Ms. Holmes:

We have received and reviewed the written notice from the Macomb Police Department of its intention to deny certain information as exempt from disclosure under section 7(1)(c) of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5 ILCS 140/7(1)(c) (West 2009 Supp.), as amended by Public Act 96-1378, effective July 29, 2010). Specifically, on April 28, 2011, [REDACTED] submitted a FOIA request to Macomb Police Department for police report #2007-012297. Macomb Police Department is seeking to redact from the requested documents the name of a possible suspect who was not arrested or charged in connection with the incident.

Section 7(1)(c) of FOIA exempts from inspection and copying "[p]ersonal information contained within public records, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, unless the disclosure is consented to in writing by the individual subjects of the information." The exemption defines "unwarranted invasion of personal privacy" as "the disclosure of information that is highly personal or objectionable to a reasonable person and in which the subject's right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining the information." 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(c) (West 2009 Supp.), as amended by Public Act 96-1378, effective July 29, 2010.

DETERMINATION

The Macomb Police Department's use of the exemption in section 7(1)(c) to redact a suspect's name is approved. We have concluded that the Macomb Police Department has met its initial burden to demonstrate that the disclosure of the names of people suspected of crimes for which they were never arrested or charged would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person. Under these circumstances, the suspects' right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in the information that Macomb Police Department intends to redact from the report.
