RE: FOIA Pre-Authorization Request - 2011 PAC 13967

Dear Ms. Clark:

We have received and reviewed the written notice from the Illinois Central Management Services (CMS) of its intention to deny disclosure of certain information pursuant to section 7(1)(f) of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5 ILCS 140/7(1)(f) (West 2009 Supp.), as amended by Public Act 96-1378, effective July 29, 2010). Specifically, on April 24, 2011, [REDACTED] submitted a FOIA request to CMS for the emails between the Illinois Department of Corrections (IDOC) and CMS relating to a March 3, 2011 FOIA request submitted by Mr. Olive.

Section 7(1)(f) of FOIA exempts from inspection and copying "preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, memoranda and other records in which opinions are expressed, or policies or actions are formulated, except that a specific record or relevant portion of a record shall not be exempt when the record is publicly cited and identified by the head of the public body." 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(f) (West 2009 Supp.), as amended by Public Act 96-1378, effective July 29, 2010.

DETERMINATION

CMS' use of the exemption in section 7(1)(f) to the withhold the emails between CMS and IDOC is approved. The section 7(1)(f) exemption is intended to encourage government officials to openly and frankly discuss matters of governmental concern in order to make informed policy decisions. Harwood v. McDonough, 344 Ill. App. 3d 242, 248, 799 N.E. 2d 859, 864 (1st Dist. 2003). "[T]he deliberative process privilege protects pre-decisional, deliberative communications that are part of an agency's decision-making process." Parmelee v. Camparone, No. 93 C 7362, 1998 WL 704181 (N.D. Ill. October 1, 1998).

We have reviewed the emails furnished to us by CMS and concluded that CMS has met its initial burden of demonstrating that the emails consist of opinions and recommendations between CMS and IDOC concerning a proposed course of action with regard to Mr. Olive's March 3, 2011 FOIA request. There also exists no evidence that the emails have been publicly cited or identified by the head of CMS. As such, CMS may withhold the emails.

If you have any questions, please contact me at (312) 814-5383. This correspondence shall serve to close this matter.

Very truly yours,
