RE: Pre-Authorization Request — 2010 PAC 11310

Dear Ms. Samuels:

We have received and reviewed the written notice from the Winfield Police Department of its intention to deny disclosure of certain information pursuant to Section 7(1)(c) of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). 5 ILCS 140/7.

██████████ submitted a FOIA request dated December 8, 2010, seeking a copy of reports relating to police calls to Central DuPage Hospital for December 4, 2010 through December 8, 2010. #10-21796. In its written notice, the Department asserted that the report contains medical information regarding the requester's adult son, information that could disclose the identities of individuals providing information and dates of birth, all of which may be exempt from disclosure under Section 7(1)(c) of FOIA.

Determinations

Section 7(1)(c) of FOIA exempts from inspection and copying "[p]ersonal information contained within public records, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, unless disclosure is consented to in writing by the individual subjects of the information." The exemption defines "[u]nwarranted invasion of personal privacy" as "the disclosure of information that is highly personal or objectionable to a reasonable person and in which the subject's right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining the information." Id.

First, the Department's use of the exemption in Section 7(1)(c) with regard to dates of birth is approved. We have determined that the disclosure of dates of birth would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy under Section 7(1)(c). 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(c). This type of information is highly personal by its very nature and the subject's right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in disclosing this information.

Second, the Department's use of the Section 7(1)(c) exemption with regard to the other redacted information is approved. We have determined that disclosure of this information would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy because it pertains to a sensitive matter that did not result in any arrests. This type of information is highly personal and the subject's right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in disclosing this information. Accordingly, the Department has met its initial burden of demonstrating that this information is exempt from disclosure under Section 7(1)(c) of FOIA. As such, the Department may issue a partial denial letter directly to the requester.

Please note that this letter does not express an opinion as to the applicability of any other exemptions under FOIA.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact the Public Access Counselor's Office at (877) 299-3642. This correspondence shall serve to close this matter.
